SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. A circular dated 25 February 1948 was distributed to all firms in the Russian zone which exhibited at the Leipzig Fair by the Interzonal and Foreign Trade Branch of the Saxon Economic Ministry. Among the rules laid down in this circular were the following:

No orders for export were to be accepted which would require the use of raw materials owned by the Russian zone firm. The firms were allowed to accept orders if the customer contracted to supply the raw materials or if the customer agreed to barter certain items for the product he wished to buy. The items which would be accepted in barter are:

Metals
Sheet metal
Wire
Metal tape
Textile raw materials except cellulose and rayon
Leather, tannic acid
Chemicals
Nails
Screws
Chains
Farm tools
Saws
Blades for planing machines
